核心理念

为什么要系统学习辩论?

辩论，是思想的"实战场"与表达的"磨刀石"。它远不止是简单的"口舌之争"，而是一门融合批判性思维、结构化表达、深度研究与团队协作的综合性素养学科。

在我们的课程中，辩论是一种思维训练工具，帮助孩子在思考与表达中实现真正的成长与突破。

Bukit International Education

辩论带来的三大核心转变

从"接收信息"到"审视信息"

学会质疑与验证，培养独立思考能力，不盲从权威或表面信息

从"感觉判断"到"逻辑论证"

用清晰的结构与可靠的证据支撑观点，让每一个判断都有理有据

从"独自思考"到"公共对话"

在交锋中理解多元视角，在协作中凝聚共识，学会建设性沟通

> 我们相信，每一个孩子的声音都值得被认真塑造，也都能在思辨的舞台上找到自己的光芒。

The big debate

Should all zoos be closed?

Some people argue that they're not good for the animals.

What you need to know

- The word "zoo" is short for "zoological park". A zoo is a place where wild animals are kept in captivity.
- Although people have kept wild animals for thousands of years, the first modern public zoo was opened in Paris, France, in 1793.
- Early zoos like this kept animals in very small enclosures. They were mostly for people's entertainment.
- Today, zoos are very different. The enclosures are much bigger and lots of zoos are involved in conservation, where they breed endangered species to release into the wild.

Some zoos do important work.

BIG BIRTHDAY In 2026, the Zoological Society of London (ZSL) will celebrate its 200th anniversary.

Is cloud seeding a good idea?

Some countries are turning to science to create rainfall.

What you need to know

- Iran has started cloud seeding. This process involves spraying clouds with special chemicals to create rain.
- The Iranian government is doing this because Iran is having its worst drought for many years. A drought is a long period with little or no rain.
- According to Iran's main weather organisation, this year's rainfall in the country is only about one tenth of the annual average, and this autumn has been the driest for 50 years.

Should spelling tests be scrapped?

Some people think tests do more harm than good.

What you need to know

- Lots of students in UK schools have to take spelling tests. In addition, some pupils are formally tested on their spelling during their school years – for example, as part of the SATs taken by Year 6 pupils in England.
- Some people want the tests to be scrapped, arguing they can have a negative impact on children that outweighs any positive effects.
- Dan Batchelor, a primary school teacher,

PSST!
Onomatopoeia is when a word sounds like what it means – "hiss" or "buzz" for example.

Tests can be hard and stressful.

Are driverless taxis a good idea?

Some say that self-driving vehicles are the future of travel.

What you need to know

- Uber (a taxi and delivery company) says it is "ready to launch" driverless taxis – known as robotaxis – in the UK.
- Driverless vehicles use technology to understand their surroundings and drive themselves. They don't need a person to control them.
- Countries including China and the United Arab Emirates (UAE) already use robotaxis. In the US, a driverless car company called Waymo makes 250,000 taxi trips per week.

TEST DRIVE
The first driverless car appeared 100 years ago in the US as an experiment. It was remote controlled.

Should we keep rebuilding beaches?

Beach restoration has been going on for decades, and some say it's time to stop.

What you need to know

- Beaches get destroyed by erosion (gradual wearing away due to natural forces), flooding, or major storms like hurricanes.
- Rebuilding beaches means taking sand from one place and putting it on a beach that has been damaged.
- In 1956, the US government established a federal program to rebuild damaged beaches.
